

28 River, Lake, and Seaside Days Out by Train from London

Looking for a day out by the water? Here are 28 of the best river, lake, and seaside destinations you can reach by train from London.

Wild Swimming Walks: 28 River, Lake and Seaside Days Out by Train from London by Margaret Dickinson

★★★★☆ 4.7 out of 5

Language	: English
File size	: 32215 KB
Text-to-Speech	: Enabled
Screen Reader	: Supported
Enhanced typesetting	: Enabled
Word Wise	: Enabled
Print length	: 433 pages
Lending	: Enabled

River Trips

1. River Thames

Take a boat trip down the River Thames to see some of London's most iconic landmarks, including the Houses of Parliament, the Tower of London, and St. Paul's Cathedral. You can also take a boat trip to Hampton Court Palace or Windsor Castle.

2. River Severn

The River Severn is the longest river in the UK. You can take a boat trip from Worcester to Gloucester, or from Gloucester to Sharpness. The river flows through some beautiful countryside, and you'll see plenty of wildlife along the way.

3. River Wye

The River Wye is one of the most beautiful rivers in the UK. You can take a boat trip from Ross-on-Wye to Tintern Abbey, or from Tintern Abbey to Chepstow. The river flows through the Wye Valley, which is a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Lake Trips

1. Lake Windermere

Lake Windermere is the largest lake in England. You can take a boat trip from Bowness-on-Windermere to Ambleside, or from Ambleside to Lakeside. The lake is surrounded by beautiful countryside, and you'll see plenty of wildlife along the way.

2. Lake Ullswater

Lake Ullswater is one of the most beautiful lakes in the Lake District. You can take a boat trip from Glenridding to Pooley Bridge, or from Pooley Bridge to Aira Force. The lake is surrounded by mountains, and you'll see plenty of waterfalls along the way.

3. Loch Lomond

Loch Lomond is the largest lake in Scotland. You can take a boat trip from Balloch to Tarbet, or from Tarbet to Rowardennan. The lake is surrounded by beautiful countryside, and you'll see plenty of wildlife along the way.

Seaside Trips

1. Brighton

Brighton is one of the most popular seaside resorts in the UK. It has a long sandy beach, a lively pier, and plenty of shops and restaurants. You can take a train from London Victoria to Brighton in just over an hour.

2. Bournemouth

Bournemouth is another popular seaside resort on the south coast of England. It has a long sandy beach, a beautiful pier, and plenty of shops and restaurants. You can take a train from London Waterloo to Bournemouth in just over two hours.

3. Eastbourne

Eastbourne is a seaside town on the south coast of England. It has a long sandy beach, a beautiful pier, and plenty of shops and restaurants. You can take a train from London Victoria to Eastbourne in just over an hour.

Other Waterside Destinations

1. Oxford

Oxford is a beautiful city in Oxfordshire. It is home to the University of Oxford, one of the most prestigious universities in the world. Oxford has a number of rivers and canals, and you can take a boat trip along the River Cherwell or the River Thames.

2. Cambridge

Cambridge is another beautiful city in Cambridgeshire. It is home to the University of Cambridge, another one of the most prestigious universities in the world. Cambridge has a number of rivers and canals, and you can take a boat trip along the River Cam or the River Great Ouse.

3. Stratford-upon-Avon

Stratford-upon-Avon is a historic town in Warwickshire. It is the birthplace of William Shakespeare, one of the greatest playwrights in the world. Stratford-upon-Avon is located on the River Avon, and you can take a boat trip along the river or visit the Royal Shakespeare Company's theatres.

Planning Your Trip

When planning your day out by the water, there are a few things you should keep in mind.

First, check the weather forecast. You don't want to get caught in a rain storm or a heat wave.

Second, pack appropriate clothing and footwear. If you're planning on swimming or boating, be sure to bring a swimsuit and towel. And if you're planning on walking or hiking, be sure to wear comfortable shoes.

Third, bring food and drinks with you. There may not be any shops or restaurants nearby, so it's best to be prepared.

Finally, don't forget to have fun! A day out by the water is a great way to relax and enjoy the scenery.

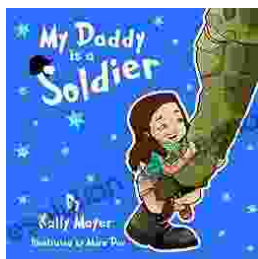

Wild Swimming Walks: 28 River, Lake and Seaside

Days Out by Train from London by Margaret Dickinson

★★★★★ 4.7 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 32215 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 433 pages
Lending : Enabled

The Bedtime Story of Love Between Daughter and Daddy

Once upon a time, there was a little girl named Lily who loved her daddy very much. Every night, before she went to bed, Lily and...

How to Stop the Aggressive Narcissist: Finding the Energy to Heal After Any Understanding the Aggressive Narcissist Aggressive narcissists are individuals with a heightened sense of entitlement and superiority....

