1. Row 1: 1 single crochet (sc) in each square across.
2. Row 2-10: 1 sc in each square around.
3. Row 11-15: 1 sc in every other square around.

Step 2: Create the Sides of the Box

Cut 4 pieces of plastic canvas measuring 11 squares by 5 squares. Work the following pattern rows on each side:

1. Row 1: 1 sc in each square across.
2. Row 2-9: 1 sc in each square around.
3. Row 10-14: 1 sc in every other square around.

Step 3: Embroider the Holly Motif

For each holly leaf, use green yarn to make 5 double crochet (dc) stitches into the desired square. Join the ends with a slip stitch to create a leaf.

Repeat to create 5 holly leaves.

For the holly berries, use red yarn to make 3 dc stitches into the desired square. Join the ends with a slip stitch to create a berry. Repeat to create 3 holly berries.

Step 4: Assemble the Box

Glue the sides of the box to the base, aligning the edges. Glue the holly motifs onto the front and back of the box.

Step 5: Make the Lid

Cut a piece of plastic canvas measuring 12 squares by 12 squares. Work the following pattern rows:

1. Row 1-11: 1 sc in each square around.
2. Row 12-16: 1 sc in every other square around.

Step 6: Join the Lid and Box

Glue the lid to the top of the box, aligning the edges. Allow to dry completely.

The Christmas Holly Gift Box Plastic Canvas Pattern offers an elegant and festive way to package gifts for the holiday season. Its vibrant colors and cheerful holly motif will surely bring joy to the hearts of loved ones. Whether used to hold small treasures or sweet treats, this handmade gift box adds a touch of warmth and personalization to the art of giving.
