Keep Calm and Carry On is one of the most iconic slogans of the 20th century. It was created by the British government during World War II to boost morale. The slogan has since been adopted by people all over the world as a way to cope with difficult times. Keep Calm and Pedal On is a blog that tells the story of the slogan and its impact on people's lives.

The History of Keep Calm and Carry On

The Keep Calm and Carry On poster was created in 1939 by the British Ministry of Information. The poster was part of a series of three posters that were designed to boost morale during the war. The other two posters in the series were "Your Courage, Your Cheerfulness, Your Resolution Will Bring Us Victory" and "Freedom Is in Peril. Defend It with All Your Might."
