A Journey Through Lower Normandy

East's artistic journey through Lower Normandy began in the picturesque town of Honfleur, renowned for its vibrant harbor and charming narrow streets. Here, he captured the essence of the town's maritime heritage, painting scenes of fishing boats and bustling quays. Continuing along the coast, East was drawn to the elegant seaside resort of Deauville, immortalizing its iconic beach, boardwalk, and grand hotels.

Venturing inland, East explored the medieval city of Bayeux, home to the world-famous Bayeux Tapestry. He captured the grandeur of its ancient cathedral and the tranquility of its cobbled streets. Further south, the vibrant city of Rouen beckoned, with its stunning Gothic architecture and lively riverside cafes. East's paintings depict the city's vibrant street life and the majesty of its cathedral.

No exploration of Lower Normandy would be complete without a visit to Caen, its capital. East was captivated by the city's rich architectural heritage, including the imposing Caen Castle and the elegant Abbaye aux Hommes. His paintings capture the city's historic charm and its vibrant contemporary culture.

The Heart of Normandy

Beyond the major towns, East sought inspiration in the region's idyllic countryside. He traversed rolling hills dotted with picturesque villages and fields of vibrant wildflowers. His paintings evoke the tranquility and beauty of the Norman landscape, capturing its gentle slopes, meandering rivers, and ancient trees.

One of the most iconic landmarks of Lower Normandy is Mont Saint-Michel, a UNESCO World Heritage site. East was drawn to the island's surreal beauty, painting numerous depictions of its towering abbey, surrounded by the vast expanse of the bay. His paintings capture the island's spiritual significance and its stunning natural setting.
