

The Complete Cabaret Collection Songbook: A Journey Through the Golden Age of Musical Theater

: The Allure of Cabaret

Cabaret, a captivating fusion of music, theater, and entertainment, has enthralled audiences for over a century. Its intimate atmosphere, where performers and patrons connect through shared experiences, fosters a sense of community and escapism. This comprehensive songbook delves into the rich history of cabaret, showcasing the timeless tunes and unforgettable lyrics that have graced its stages from the early 20th century to the present day.

Chapter 1: The Birth of Cabaret

The origins of cabaret can be traced back to the early 1900s, when small, intimate venues emerged in cities like Paris, London, and Berlin. These establishments provided a platform for performers to showcase their talents in a relaxed and informal setting. The cabaret scene flourished during the interwar years, becoming a hub for bohemian artists, intellectuals, and socialites.

* "La Vie en Rose" by Édith Piaf * "Mack the Knife" by Bertolt Brecht and Kurt Weill * "Cabaret" by John Kander and Fred Ebb

Chapter 2: The Cabaret Tradition in America

In the 1920s and 1930s, cabaret gained popularity in the United States, particularly in New York City. Legendary venues like the Stork Club and the Copacabana showcased a wide range of performers, from jazz musicians to comedians and singers. The Great Depression and World War II temporarily dampened the cabaret scene, but it experienced a resurgence in the postwar era.

Key Songs:

* "My Heart Belongs to Daddy" by Cole Porter * "Singin' in the Rain" by Nacio Herb Brown and Arthur Freed * "Moon River" by Henry Mancini and Johnny Mercer

Chapter 3: Broadway and Beyond

In the mid-20th century, cabaret and Broadway musicals became closely intertwined. Many popular Broadway tunes found their way into cabaret repertoires, and vice versa. Cabaret also provided a training ground for aspiring performers who went on to achieve success on the Great White Way.

Key Songs:

* "Somewhere" from "West Side Story" by Leonard Bernstein and Stephen Sondheim * "Memory" from "Cats" by Andrew Lloyd Webber and T.S. Eliot * "I Dreamed a Dream" from "Les Misérables" by Claude-Michel Schönberg and Alain Boublil

Chapter 4: The New Cabaret

In the 1970s and 1980s, cabaret underwent a revival, characterized by a new generation of performers who pushed the boundaries of the genre. Cabaret artists began incorporating elements of rock, punk, and performance art into their shows. This period also saw the rise of off-Broadway cabaret theaters, providing a platform for experimental and innovative work.

Key Songs:

* "Willkommen" from "Cabaret" by John Kander and Fred Ebb * "Mein Herr" from "Cabaret" by John Kander and Fred Ebb * "All That Jazz" from "Chicago" by John Kander and Fred Ebb

Chapter 5: The Cabaret Legacy

Today, cabaret continues to thrive around the world, offering a rich and diverse range of performances. From traditional venues to contemporary spaces, cabaret artists continue to captivate audiences with their artistry and passion. The legacy of cabaret is evident in countless recordings, films, and television shows.
